

The Eternal Quest

I walk to the rhythm of your feet,
My heart beats in sync, a love so sweet.
The books I read, a journey to share,
Take me to places beyond compare.

One tells the story of my heart's deep core,
A reflection of emotions I've lived before.
Another sparks an absurd hunger of mind,
A quest for knowledge, leaving me refined.

Reading you answers the question authors failed to,
God? Is there anything like?
It's you!
