

Humanity, Regardless!

A boy! An angel and a devil were sitting on the boy's shoulders. A dog, who had just bitten the boy on his left hand, was breathing heavily, her tongue was out, blood was flowing from her abdomen, and one leg seemed broken. Her little kids, the puppies, playing around, were moving around their mother, only knowing that something terrible happened to her; as they tried to push their mother, one of them started barking loudly in his puppy voice!

Initially, the boy, who was just 15, was attracted by the puppies; in his attempt to hold one of the puppies, he was attacked and bitten by the puppy's mother, as she saw the boy as a threat to her kids. The boy gathered his energy and somehow managed to throw the dog mom away. As the dog mother stood up and was about to make her second attack, a car passing by hit the dog mom, and the rest is known!

The boy was watching the whole scenario and was stuck in there; both the angel and devil were trying to convince the boy what to do. The boy, not falling for any of them, neither good nor bad, picks up the dog mother and her kids, puts the kids in his cycle carry, takes his shirt off, and covers the dog mother, who was adjusted and laid on cycle's back seat, drove the cycle as fast he could and reached the nearest clinic he knew, in tears, requested the doctor to see the dog mother!

The doctor accessed the situation and aided both of them immediately! After a few months, the boy was sitting and playing with the little puppies and the dog mother was caressing, licking, and cuddling the boy, as the dog mother does to her puppies.

Love is in every aspect ever formed, created, generated, destroyed, Imagined.... dead, living, non-living... good, bad... heaven, hell... humans, animals... start, end.... space, time....

light, dark.... god, demon.... defines everything.

What defines love is Humanity. It bestows life with its ultimate purpose, enabling us to exist and truly live!

"HUMANITY, THE ONLY ENTITY, ALWAYS NEEDS TO LIVE AND GROW"
