

"In Search of 'The'"

Just if I.... knew why, how, when, where, what, should, could, shall, will, is, do, does, did, can ...I was born, purpose of living, don't know anything about studying, ended up leaving most of the life away from them, ever get to see her again, to know what is a good and bad choice, cope with not feeling a thing don't know since long gone, acts like a joker, shies away in the isolation and afraid to open up, lies 10 per cent of the time, forgets the happy and sad in 11 seconds, aid every time I get a chance to,

good to expect something in return for a good deed, there is something like what goes around comes around, is that the one thing, that perfect moment, the correct time, 'The', find 'The' in this life, next life, oh, might be already had it in previous, am going to die, already dead, made any sense, the entry, the exit and the in-between a little?

Just if I... knew ...I

Take a break and breathe, Listen to the music in the moment, Know, you will never know 'The',
So, stop wasting worrying,
Live a Little!
